ELIZABETH A. DUNCAN
In 11th Hour Fight to Escape Execution

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Duncan, who is scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber tomorrow for the third murder of her pregnant daughter-in-law, waged an 11th hour fight for her life today.

Also hopeful that some last minute reprieve might allow her to stay the execution was Lyle, 34, and Augustine, 32, the two men who were sentenced to die with her.

The two men were sentenced to die last week after the 19-year-old "Ma" Duncan was shot.

Ma Duncan was shot in the back of the head by her husband, Lyle, and Augustine, who were her sons.

The hearing began at 10 a.m. and lasted for two hours. It was held in the courtroom of the San Francisco Superior Court.

Seek to Avoid Israel Return

Britain May Deport

Spy Soblen to U.S.

By RICHARD H. GROWALD

LONDON, Aug. 7 (UPI)—Government sources

hinted today that Britain would deport Soviet spy

Robert A. Soblen to the United States rather than let the half-jumping fugitive slip back to Israel.

Reports from London said that developments were being made in the case and that action might be taken in the United States today.

The report said that Soblen had agreed to make statements on the 15th and 16th of August.

There was no official confirmation of any of the reports, but officials denied that Soblen would be deported.

Probe Cause of Man's Death; Suspect Dope

An autopsy will be performed today on a young Negro who died in a crash of a Chevrolet auto electric motor in downtown Chicago last night.

The victim, who was 21 years old, was identified as James Earl Ray, a Negro, who had been arrested in London last year on charges of slaying the Rev. Martin Luther King.

The man, George W. Rogers, 4322 Marshall Ave. was described as several feet taller than Ray, with dark hair and a prominent nose.

Utahdale police said they are looking for Charles Ray, brother of James Earl Ray, who is believed to be in the area. Rogers, a brother, and a man known as Tom Reed also are being sought.

Police said they were not sure about events during the shooting.

Reed said that he had told him that he had been looking for Ray, but that he had not found him. He said that he had been looking for Ray, but that he had not found him.

Police received a call from a woman saying, "I think I saw a man who looks like James Earl Ray."
